

Adjoint class defined by each measured training dictionary

Exact population projection, allowing any valid solution. Each point averages the three training samples of a saved dataset; no nuisance fits are run.